

All About the Alphabet

Enjoy these activities as you teach your children about the alphabet.

Day 1: Aa

- Finger paint Aa, sponge paint A in different colors, cut and glue A's and a's
- Trace Aa in rice
- Find the letter Aa in magnets
- Eat for lunch: apple, apricot, applesauce, apple juice
- Read a book about Abraham Lincoln
- Plant an apple blossom (amaryllis) bulb
- Play with animals from Africa
- Look at different alphabets (in an encyclopedia)
- Find on a map: Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas and discuss things about maps
- Go on a treasure hunt (put all of the items in one place—except those marked with *—and take a picture; make a book at the end!):

- apple
- arrow
- airplane
- aardvark
- ambulance
- Abraham Lincoln
- apricot
- Ark
- acorn squash

Day 2: Bb

- Make the letter Bb with beans, cut and glue and stencil B's and b's
- Find the letter Bb in magnets
- Eat for lunch: bananas, bread
- Read a B book under a blanket, on the beanbags, with bears, with Mama between
- Play with blocks
- Play with bubbles
- Plan a birthday party (if one is not close, have a birthday for a stuffed animal)
- Read ballet book and dance to music
- Make birdfeeders
- Eat for dinner: bean burritos
- Go on a treasure hunt:

